Tampa Entrepreneur to Debut New Book, STAND

Tampa, FL (10/20/15) – Entrepreneur Gary T. Hartfield will debut the chronicle of his life's experiences on November 15, 2015, with the release of STAND, available for pre-order online at www.garyhartfieldstand.com. The memoir provides a close look at a man's background filled with personal and professional challenges while sharing a unique perspective of anchored-in-faith approaches used to create a life of success.

Hartfield is known for his passion for bettering the lives of others and giving back to make stronger communities. As a father and entrepreneur, he has launched several startup businesses and serves as a role model and source of inspiration for many students and business professionals.

STAND reveals a compelling recollection of the author's experiences, dreams, and successes. "Although life can sometimes be complicated, I am grateful for the lessons learned along the way that have anchored my humility and trust in God," notes Hartfield. "I hope this book serves as a source of education, motivation, and empowerment for all who read it," the author further states.

Hartfield will be available for book signing at a book release party being held at Chart House, at 7616 Courtney Campbell Trail, in Tampa, 7:00-10:00 p.m. The event is free to the general public. RSVP is required. Attendees will have the opportunity to meet the author and purchase an autographed copy of the book.
